Singapore, 1 November 2023 – In 2023, "Le Petit Prince" celebrates its 80th anniversary. To commemorate this emblematic work by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, Sofitel Hotels and Resorts celebrate eleven years of partnership with "Le Petit Prince" and The Antoine de Saint-Exupéry Youth Foundation.

A global initiative, Sofitel Hotels and Resorts across the world will incorporate the rose – an important symbol for "Le Petit Prince" – throughout each establishment. At Sofitel Singapore Sentosa Resort & Spa, enjoy rose-inspired items, from culinary delights and family activities to a sustainable installation of paper roses at the lobby.

Sustainable Art Installation and Activities

"People where you live," the little prince said, "grow five thousand roses in one garden... Yet they don't find what they're looking for... And yet what they're looking for could be found in a single rose."

SOFITEL

SINGAPORE SENTOSA RESORT & SPA

As part of the 80th anniversary, Accor – parent company of Sofitel - has partnered with French paper artist Marjorie Colas to gift all Sofitel properties a paper rose, inspired by the titular character. At Sofitel Singapore Sentosa Resort & Spa, our Heartists® have incorporated this into an installation in the lobby inspired by "Le Petit Prince". Colas' paper rose is the centre piece, while origami roses meticulously crafted from upcycled flyers and old magazines surround it - a nod to the Resort's commitment to sustainability. This project celebrates the theme of discovery, mirroring the essence of "Le Petit Prince" by transforming paper into vibrant roses.

To further enrich the guest experience and encourage a sense of exploration, the Resort is introducing "Le Petit Prince" activities for families. Young guests will receive an activity sheet upon check-in, and embark on a treasure hunt to discover the Resort's hidden gems. Additionally, they will be given instructions to make paper roses. These activities encapsulate the Resort's commitment to fostering a deeper sense of discovery and appreciation of the world, in harmony with the spirit of "Le Petit Prince".
